NOTICE REGARDING PRODUCT INFORMATION,
DATA DISCLOSURE, AND LIMITATION OF RESPONSIBILITY

To whom it may concern,

This Notice is issued by SPEMCO (hereinafter referred to as “SPEMCO”) in response to inquiries regarding product-related data, documentation, and compliance information.

1. Nature of Business

SPEMCO is not a manufacturer of goods. SPEMCO operates as a distributor and assembler of products, utilizing components sourced from various third-party manufacturers in accordance with specifications provided by its customers. This process is commonly referred to as “build to print.”

2. Sourcing and Country of Origin

SPEMCO does not directly import products. All items are sourced through domestic vendors and suppliers. Consequently, SPEMCO does not independently verify and cannot guarantee the country of origin of any component or finished product.

3. Limitation of Responsibility

As a distributor, SPEMCO does not manufacture the individual components incorporated into its assembled products and, therefore, shall not be held liable for the accuracy, completeness, dissemination, or verification of any data related to the manufacturing processes of its vendors.

This limitation includes, but is not limited to, the following categories of information:

- Buyer-specific data
- Climate impact
- Diversity and inclusion metrics
- Biodiversity considerations
- Product stewardship
- Pollution data
- Human rights compliance
- Data protection and privacy practices
- Resource utilization
- Organizational resilience
- Organizational commitment policies

- Labor rights
- Human trafficking and slavery compliance
- CA Prop65
- EU Waste Framework Directive
- TSCA Restrictions
- PFAS Identification
- Country of Origin
- Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS) codes

4. Documentation and Compliance Materials

SPEMCO does not retrieve, compile, maintain, or distribute documentation related to compliance or regulatory matters, including but not limited to:

- Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS/SDS)
- Conflict Minerals disclosures
- REACH compliance documentation
- RoHS compliance documentation

The storage or distribution of such materials by SPEMCO may result in the dissemination of outdated or inaccurate information. Accordingly, SPEMCO expressly disclaims any responsibility for maintaining or providing these documents.

5. Customer Responsibility

Customers, including any third-party compliance contractors acting on their behalf, are solely responsible for obtaining all relevant product data, compliance documentation, and certifications directly from the original component manufacturers.

6. Availability of Information

For convenience, customers are advised that such information may often be available through the respective manufacturers' official websites.

7. Reservation of Rights

SPEMCO reserves the right to decline any request for documentation or data described herein and assumes no obligation to support such requests.

This Notice is provided for informational purposes and shall be considered binding with respect to all current and future inquiries unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by SPEMCO.
